—— A. L. s. "Oscar," 1 p. 8vo, 16, Tite St., n. d., to the same, speaks of having been very ill with a nervous fever, and being at war with the Academy; with A. L. s. of Willie Wilde S 26/7/21. Tregaskis, £4

—— A. L. s. 4 pp. 8vo; 16, Tite Street, Chelsea, n. d. to "Violet Fane," suggesting the plot of a one-act play for her to write :

A very pretty woman writes a successful novel. This alarms her admirers who seek refuge in those who are peacefully brainless : the authoress is left to the mercies of the dull, the well-informed, the publishers, the intellectual and the ugly.—etc.

S 12/3/20. Spencer, £6 5s

—— A. L. s. 3 pp. 8vo, 16, Tite Street, Chelsea, S.W., n. d., to Mrs. Singleton about sending a sonnet and suggesting :
... that a capital essay might be written on the "Demoralizing influence of Nature"—however as she has suggested a sonnet to you much will be forgiven to her—etc.

S 12/3/20. Maggs, £6

—— 2 pp. 8vo, La Belle Sauvage, Ludgate Hill, November 8, 1887, to the same, about the sonnet she has sent him for a paper he was editing :

Has the "Edwin and Angelina" spirit been killed by vegetarianism? or will you write me a short prose article some day? I still think the Philistine side of the country, of nature, would be a capital peg—etc.

S 12/3/20. Spencer, £3

—— A. L. s. 4 pp. 8vo, 16 Tite Street, Chelsea, S.W., n. d., to the same, criticizing a volume of poems by a girl

I always suggest the sonnet form to young poets : it is admirable as an exercise and trial of strength S 12/3/20. Spencer, £5 5s

—— A. L. s. 3 pp. 8vo, 9 Charles Street, Grosvenor Square, n. d., to the same, accepting an invitation and apologizing for not having answered sooner :

... It was horrid of me not to answer before—but a nice letter is like a sunbeam and should not be treated as an epistle needing a reply—besides your invitations are commands.

I look forward to meeting Proteus (W. S. Blunt) very much—his sonnets are the cameos of decadence—etc.
